

Carolina Giron Yumet

Carolina is the manager over the Strategic Business Unit in the Development Services Department of the City of Dallas.

She has been working for the City of Dallas since 2012 and since then she has held different positions all which have been within Development Services and all focused in the different stages of the Development Process. She began her career with the City at the Permit Center in Building Inspections as a Senior Plans Examiner and later transition to manage that section. Her experience also includes working as a Senior Planner in Current Planning handling zoning changes and later as the Interim Planning manager over that section before moving to Strategic Business Unit in 2020 as a Senior Development Coordinator where she was promoted to her current position.