

Kimberly Bizer Tolbert

Kimberly Bizer Tolbert serves as the first female African American Deputy City Manager for the City of Dallas, the ninth-largest City in the nation. With a total workforce of more than 13,300 employees and an annual budget that exceeds over $4B, Kimberly operates as the second in command to the City Manager.

In her current role, she provides oversight to the following city departments: Aviation, Dallas Water Utilities, Office of Communications, Outreach, and Marketing, Human Resources, Office of Risk Management, Office of Homeless Solutions, and the Small Business Center. She executes strategies designed to achieve the mission and objectives of the organization and, proudly represents the City in building collaborative relationships and partnerships with business, community, and special interest organizations across diverse constituencies.

With over two decades of experience as a public service professional, Kimberly has experience and expertise in strategic planning, communications, administration, finance, operations, governance, business development, diversity and inclusion, change management, and leadership and talent development.

Kimberly proudly serves as the President of the Dallas Convention Hotel Development Corporation (Omni Dallas Hotel) and board member of the Homeless Collaborative between Dallas and Denton Counties. Additionally, she is an active member of various community and professional organizations and an award-winning advocate for continuing education.

Kimberly holds a Master of Public Administration degree from the University of North Texas and is the proud mother of Joshua Kennedy Tolbert, a senior scholar and National Champion athlete attending Loyola University in New Orleans.
