SUMMARY

The RHCA's Contractor Business Center is the only one-stop shop in the country assisting, new, small, and emerging general contractors and subcontractors with project procurement, construction safety, and sustainability.

As an advocacy leader in the A/E/C industry for diversity, equality, and inclusion, it also serves as a "Hispanic Chamber of Commerce" in the architectural, engineering, and construction (A/E/C) industry.

Membership profiles include general contractors, sub-contractors, small business owners, engineers, architects, construction workers, safety training educators/instructors, and students.
